

Bemidji State University

TADT 4867: Lean Principles and Practices

A. COURSE DESCRIPTION

Credits: 4

Lecture Hours/Week: .

Lab Hours/Week: .

OJT Hours/Week: .

Prerequisites: None

Corequisites: None

MnTC Goals: None

This course teaches the principles and practical application of Lean methods and tools as they would apply in various types of organizational value streams allowing for continuously improving operational performances that are fast, flexible, focused and organizationally inclusive for all stakeholders.

Prerequisite(s): Junior status or consent of the instructor

B. COURSE EFFECTIVE DATES: 08/25/2014 - 08/21/2016

C. OUTLINE OF MAJOR CONTENT AREAS

None

D. LEARNING OUTCOMES (General)

None

E. Minnesota Transfer Curriculum Goal Area(s) and Competencies

None

F. LEARNER OUTCOMES ASSESSMENT

As noted on course syllabus

G. SPECIAL INFORMATION

None noted