Lecture Hours/Week: 0
Lab Hours/Week: 0
OJT Hours/Week: .
Prerequisites: None
Corequisites: None

MnTC Goals: Goal 07 - Human Diversity, Goal 08 - Global Perspective

Throughout their history, Indigenous people have developed their own body of knowledge on global sustainability that they have passed on, generation to generation. This course will provide students with a large picture perspective of global Indigenous sustainability knowledge and viewpoints and how this perspective continues to affect the relationship of the Indigenous peoples with the natural world and its resources. Students will also investigate present-day global political, economic, social, and technological issues related to incorporating Indigenous views into sustainability efforts across the continents. Liberal Education Goal Areas 7 & 8.

B. COURSE EFFECTIVE DATES: 08/26/2019 - Present

C. OUTLINE OF MAJOR CONTENT AREAS

1. Western Science-Environmental Studies
2. Indigenous Environmental Knowledge-Indigenous Studies

D. LEARNING OUTCOMES (General)

1. evaluate historical, political, economic, and cultural aspects of sustainable communities from both the Western Scientific and the Indigenous perspectives from around the world (Australia, New Zealand, Africa, South America and others).
2. discuss the holistic, inclusive way that Indigenous people from around the world (Australia, New Zealand, Africa, South America and others) consider the environment, other living beings, their homelands, and their contributions to global societies.
3. evaluate cultural values, practices, and protocols related to Indigenous perspectives, global sustainability, and the efforts to advocate for global sustainability in United Nations forums and across the world.
4. compare the goals, assumptions, and interconnected elements of sustainable communities from around the world from an Indigenous and Western Science perspective.
5. understand the responsibility world citizens share for their common global future.
