   Begin to assemble a personal repertoire collection in the form of an Archive and Retrieval System for the purpose of extracting, sequencing, and teaching the elements of music. Develop techniques for researching, collecting, analyzing, classifying, retrieving, and notating musical selections. Music literature should be representative of a multiplicity of style periods and genres including folk, art, and vernacular music from Western and non-Western traditions and should fit within a Scope and Sequence. Such repertoire should be suitable for the beginning music learner.
