MnTC Goals: Goal 01 - Communication

This class provides extended practice in critical reading, writing, and thinking skills. Students will develop an effective writing process and work to achieve college-level competence in reading and responding to texts, visuals, events, and ideas in a variety of written formats, with an emphasis on the academic essay. Audience awareness, interpretation and analysis, logical reasoning, and persuasive and argumentative skills will be developed. MLA style documentation of primary sources will be included.

B. COURSE EFFECTIVE DATES: 06/02/2014 - Present

C. OUTLINE OF MAJOR CONTENT AREAS

1. Students will read from a variety of challenging texts to practice critical thinking, analytical, and interpretive skills and will compose a minimum of twenty pages of writing evidencing those skills. Papers must also demonstrate effective planning, revising, and editing processes.
2. Student writing must show proficiency in Standard American Written English; a brief review of grammar and usage may therefore be included.
3. Students may also write a variety of informal assignments, such as in-class work, journal writing, and other responses to required readings.
4. Small group discussion and peer review of written work are components of this course.
5. Demonstrated ability to document primary sources in MLA format is required.
