The Lab section of the proposed and approved Introduction to Dance course is an exploration of the practice of dance as an embodied form of inquiry and expression. Students will move through a survey of diverse approaches to dance, considering their cultural, aesthetic and personal contexts as they go. Registration for this lab class would be prioritized for students registering for the full three credit Introduction to Dance course, and available spaces (up to 24 total) would then be opened to students wishing to take this lab section as a one credit Health and Wellness requirement fulfillment. (Prerequisite: none) (1 credit: 0 lecture/1 lab)
