MnTC Goals: Goal 01 - Communication, Goal 06 - Humanities/Fine Arts

This course meets Minnesota Transfer Curriculum (MnTC) goal areas 1 and 6. This course goes beyond the basics of creative writing and expository writing to examine the fundamentals of creative nonfiction as it pertains to nature writing. It stresses exploration of creative nonfiction and expository prose within the framework of nature writing and ecocriticism. Emphasis is on exploring five tributaries of nonfiction prose, including memoir, essay, critique, place writing, and literary journalism. The learner will learn to write and think in different ways through interpretation and analysis of information, texts, and perspectives related to nature writing and ecocriticism. Prerequisite: ENGL1465 Creative Writing or ENGL1420 Composition II
