Alexandria Technical and Community College

FBMT 1213: Managing a Farm System in a Global Economy

A. COURSE DESCRIPTION

Credits: 2
Lecture Hours/Week: 0
Lab Hours/Week: 0
OJT Hours/Week: .
Prerequisites: None
Corequisites: None
MnTC Goals: None

This course assists the students in achieving awareness of development in agricultural policies and practices throughout the world and assessing the impact of these policies and practices on the profitability and viability of their farm business.

B. COURSE EFFECTIVE DATES: 01/24/2024 - Present

C. OUTLINE OF MAJOR CONTENT AREAS

1. Identify global markets and competitors
2. Assess farm technology needs to compete in global markets
3. Identify the competitive advantages of the farm business in a global economy
4. Analyze the impact of global policies and economics on the farm business
5. Relate global environmental issues to the farm business

D. LEARNING OUTCOMES (General)

1. Examine selected agricultural policies and practices throughout the world that influence US agriculture
2. Explain how world agricultural policies and practices impact on the farm business they are actively engaged in operating and managing

E. Minnesota Transfer Curriculum Goal Area(s) and Competencies

None

F. LEARNER OUTCOMES ASSESSMENT

As noted on course syllabus

G. SPECIAL INFORMATION

None noted